Notice to Alpine Ski School / Club:  This is the type of liability release form used for the “ski season” for regular customers, or for those taking a series of ski lessons or by a ski club members, for all Alpine clients. It avoids having to have them sign new releases each day a student takes a ski lesson (such as in a series of Alpine ski school lessons) or a club member skis or takes a lesson from one of the listed club member ski instructors. Especially helps when a parent has to sign for a minor taking ski lessons in a multi-week program. We offer this format for you to adopt, however we realize some of you already have your own release forms, which the insurance company requires you send with your completed application.

There is NO Participant Legal Liability coverage (for ski school / club) involving any skier who competes in a competition (i.e. ski RACES, etc.) unless the skier (or parent / guardian) has first signed a release / waiver form PRIOR to participating in any ski race-competitive event----

(More and more ski schools are adopting this recommended format.) If you do not use this release form it is important that you send us a copy of the type of release forms you use.

(cut off this “notice”, then photo-copy a supply of the form and distribute to your staff in case they are needed)
